

Case Study

My Hotel

Delivered for My Hotel

Fit out of a Four Storey Boutique Hotel
Value: £9.6 million | 2008

WILLMOTT DIXON
GROUP

THE SUNDAY TIMES

A member of Business &
Community

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Description Willmott Dixon Interiors were appointed to complete a two stage design and build fit out of a four storey boutique hotel in Brighton.

The project involved a complete fit out of 80 bedrooms including specialist fixtures, fittings and bespoke bathrooms. The design scheme was developed by MyHotel owner Andy Thrasyvoulou in collaboration with New York based designer Karim Rashid.

The scope of works included a new café, restaurant, bar and meeting rooms as well as three separate shop units. New car park was built and back of house facilities were installed on the basement level.

Key Facts
Value: £9.6m
Duration: 73 Weeks
Location: Brighton
Size: 80 Rooms

Contact Annalie York, Company Sales and Marketing Manager 0207 6349 634